

LIVELY CONTESTS AT THE PRIMARIES

MITCHELL-RANDOLPH FIGHT ATTRACTS ATTENTION OF THE VOTERS.

Burke and Flynn Fighting it Out in the Forty-Ninth—Laymance-English Faction Defeating Machine—Knowland's Delegates Have No Opposition.

The primary election is passing off quietly in the various districts of Alameda county where the law requires that an election be held.

There are only two contests which stand out prominently at the polls today, one for the Republican nomination for Supervisor in the Fifth district, and the other for the nomination of Assemblyman for the Forty-ninth district.

The contest for Supervisor is being waged by Supervisor John Mitchell, the incumbent, who is opposed by George E. Randolph. The contest in this district is an interesting and lively one, and scores of workers are in the field for both sides, and voters are being drummed up to vote for the respective candidates.

Supervisor Mitchell has been working since early morning and will keep up the battle until the polls are closed.

When seen this morning Mr. Mitchell was confident that he would win in the fight. The friends of Randolph also appear to be very confident.

Supervisor Mitchell was out in the field early this morning, endeavoring to counteract the plans of his opponent in every way. The fight is being watched with a great deal of interest throughout the county.

looks as if the Laymance people will carry the districts in which they have entered tickets.

The contest is a friendly one and there is no bitterness attached to it. The fight is simply to secure control of the primaries in this county.

The Congressional ticket is going through without a hitch and no opposition is made to the delegates sent by the field for Joseph Knowland.

The Union Labor party also has delegates in the field working for that party. The Socialists and Prohibitionists also have tickets in the field.

The election is passing off quietly throughout the city and county. In Alameda it is stated that the Bates ticket, backed by Joseph Knowland, will easily win against the ticket put up by ex-Senator Taylor.

In the Seventh Ward Supervisor Rowe is a candidate for re-election and he has no opposition. Neither has Supervisor Horner in the country.

FIFTH SUPERVISORIAL.

The Fifth Supervisorial district, in which Messrs. Mitchell and Randolph are struggling for the mastery, comprises twenty-four voting precincts, some of which are located in Berkeley.

A canvass of all these, however, is not considered essential for the purpose of determining which of these aspirants is to be the winner in the fight. Eight of these precincts, located in this city, are considered sufficiently representative of the sentiment of the residents of the district on the question at issue and to indicate how the entire district will go with respect to both those candidates.

A canvass of the sentiment in those districts leads to the impression that Mitchell is not only the stronger man but that he has also the better arrangement of workers, and that he will win in the race.

This is an impression which was expressed to a TRIBUNE reporter this morning by a well known county official who has been through many campaigns and who is, at the same time a partisan of Mr. Randolph.

At the polls of the precincts in question, both Mitchell and Randolph have a corps of workers, those engaged under the Mitchell banner being indicated by red color and those of the Randolph hosts by white badges.

Aside from these, there are others who are working for both but who display no colors.

As soon as a voter makes his appearance at any of the polls, he is surrounded by the workers, and invited to accept one of their ballots. Sometimes he produces a ballot which he has already received by mail. He then enters the booth, prepares his ballot and speculation must be indulged in to determine in whose favor the ballot read.

SECOND PRECINCT.

At the polls of the second precinct, at Fifty-first and Telegraph avenue, quite an amount of activity was displayed. At noon 120 votes had been polled and it was expected that before five o'clock the number of ballots would be run up to 160 or possibly 175. The officers at the polling place were:

Inspector—H. K. Geary Jr.; Judges—Harry Chapman, Richard Chalmers; Clerks, W. P. Bradshaw, F. J. Dolan; Ballot Clerk, D. L. Roberts.

This is a section of the First ward in which Mr. Mitchell has always been a favorite. He has always been liberally supported here and his friends today believe that he was making a lively canvass and that a better showing even would be made toward the closing of the polls in this evening. This is a precinct in which in addition to his own strength, Mr. Mitchell enjoyed that of Councilman Alex McAdam, who was much in evidence.

Mr. Mitchell's other workers comprised M. S. Streeter, H. B. Lusk, Kirk Geary, H. S. Young, Dick Young, Wm. Jones, Harry Smith, Louis Siegrist, C. E. Parsons, Captain Fulton.

Mr. Randolph was supported by J. F. Ford, H. M. Tyrrell, F. C. Bignami, L. A. Underwood, V. Benetto and A. H. Drake, the names of some of whom, however, appear on some of the tickets at the polls.

FOURTH PRECINCT.

At the Fourth Precinct, 4162 Telegraph avenue, only fifty votes had been cast at noon and it was expected that between 75 and 100 votes would be polled at the close of the day. Here the Mitchell side was sustained by Al Harford while Randolph was represented by G. H. Davis and Jack Williams, who was also in charge of the Randolph forces in the First Ward. Each claimed a majority of the votes cast for his patron, though it was the impression of those best informed on the subject that Mitchell was running ahead.

At the polling place in this precinct, the TRIBUNE reporter met Supervisor Mitchell himself and anticipating a query as to how things were going, Mr. Mitchell volunteered the statement:

"You can say for me that the fight is going to my liking. My support is coming from my friends in many places and that I am confident and at the same time thankful. I feel it's going all right."

Mr. Mitchell's manner and appearance bore out his statement because he seemed sprightly and light-hearted and pleasantly accosted friends on all sides. The officers in charge of this precinct were:

Inspector—R. B. Nixon. Judges—Frederick Tusher, H. Zerrell, Clerks—G. W. Prescott, P. C. Hansen. Ballot Clerk—P. H. Mulatty.

PRECINCT FIVE.

At Fortieth and Grove streets there was quite a hopeful feeling that Randolph would have quite a lead over Mitchell at the close of the polls. This view was expressed by Deputy County Assessor Thomas M. Robinson, who had arrayed himself on the side of Mr. Randolph and who stood around and helped that gentleman's candidacy.

Here also, was found Jack Williamson, on a temporary visit in a round of the precincts in the First Ward in the interest of Mr. Randolph. Mr. Williamson based the success of Randolph on the vote of the inmates of the Industrial Home for the Blind, of which Mr. Randolph is a member of the Board of Directors.

Mr. Williamson, living at Cinech Park, a suburb, shot his wife, Vola, twice today, injuring her severely; shot and killed his brother-in-law, and then with the same revolver, ended his own life. Jealousy is said to have prompted the commission of the crime.

STOESSEL TELLS OF BATTLE

Declares That the Japs Met With Enormous Loss.

ST. PETERSBURG August 9.—The following dispatch from Viceroy Alexander dated August 7 has been received by the Emperor:

"General Stoessel reports as follows:

"At 5 in the morning of July 27, the enemy, having advanced in strong force their artillery opened fire along the whole front, followed by a series of attacks, one of which, directed against Yulphaza mountain, was especially vigorous.

"At about 8 in the evening the enemy were everywhere repulsed with enormous losses. I remained in the advanced position we have held for two days against an array very much stronger than ours."

"At 4 in the morning of July 30 about 5 in the evening, the Japanese took the offensive again at our position on Wolf's Hill. In view of the superiority of the enemy's force and weakness of the position, our troops were ordered to retire to the next position without fighting. The movement was affected in complete order under the protection of artillery, which by accurate fire, at short range, completely stopped the Japanese advance.

"Our losses have not yet been ascertained but they were not great. The losses of the Japanese were very considerable. In the engagements of July 26 and 27 the Japanese had about 70,000 men and a considerable number of siege guns.

"The morale of the Russian troops is excellent and their health good."

SHEEHAN TO MAKE FIGHT

He Will Represent Parker in the Committee.

NEW YORK, August 9.—Leading Democrats and members of the executive committee seem to the fact if William Sheehan is to be in active charge of the Democratic campaign, that Judge Parker will at the times be in close touch with every important feature on the canvas. Dr. Sheehan is the close personal and political friend of the Democratic candidate, and it was to him that the now famous telegram about the gold standard was sent. At the time of the meeting of the national committee many Eastern Democrats wanted Senator German or Mr. Sheehan for chairman of the committee, but it is now claimed that the same practical result has been accomplished by selection of the latter as chairman of the executive committee and in placing the management of the campaign in his hands.

The present arrangement is satisfactory to the Eastern Democrats, who are anxious to have a Eastern man for campaign manager.

At Fortieth and Grove streets there was quite a hopeful feeling that Randolph would have quite a lead over Mitchell at the close of the polls. This view was expressed by Deputy County Assessor Thomas M. Robinson, who had arrayed himself on the side of Mr. Randolph and who stood around and helped that gentleman's candidacy.

SHERIFFS MEET.

ST. LOUIS, August 9.—John P. Johnson, a negro, living at Cinech Park, a suburb, shot his wife, Vola, twice today, injuring her severely; shot and killed his brother-in-law, and then with the same revolver, ended his own life. Jealousy is said to have prompted the commission of the crime.

SHERIFFS MEET.

ST. LOUIS, August 9.—Between 100 and 150 members of the Interstate Sheriffs' Association, from various parts of the country, are attending a three days' convention which began today.

PRIMARIES IN THE SOUTH

Flint-Bard Fight Appears to Be Very Lively.

LOS ANGELES, August 9.—Republican and Democratic primaries are being held today in Los Angeles city and county for the selection of delegates to the different State, Congressional, Senatorial, county and Assembly district conventions.

In the Democratic primaries there are no contests.

In the Republican primaries, however, there is a spirited contest between the followers of the rival candidates for United States Senator. Senator Bard and Frank P. Flint, and the fight is overshadowing all other considerations in importance and popular interest.

Both sides are claiming victory. The delegates chosen at today's primaries will name candidates for the State Assembly and two candidates for the State Senate.

HAY TELLS THE STORY.

EXPLAINS TO THE CABINET WHY HE TOOK PROMPT ACTION.

WASHINGTON, August 9.—Secretary Hay occupied considerable time at the cabinet meeting today in a presentation of the latest phases of the Turkish situation. He explained the reasons which had actuated him in requesting that the American European squadron should be sent to Smyrna, the most convenient port in Constantinople. It is not deemed wise by the secretary that the reasons for this action should be disclosed entirely at this time. Fresh negotiations with the Porte have been instituted, and in the event of their failure it may be that Minister Leishman may leave Constantinople and go aboard the American flag-ship, thus creating a situation of some seriousness.

While absolute harmony prevails in the Turkish Republic, the Democrats have two tickets. One of the Democratic tickets is being supported by the Laymance adherents and will probably win.

In the morning and until late this afternoon carriages and autos were stirring about the city in search of voters.

STOPPED BY CRUISER

PLYMOUTH, England, Aug. 9.—The British steamer Manora from Calcutta June 29th, for London, arrived here today and reported that when she met a large cruiser flying the Russian naval flag. There were guns mounted on the cruiser, which evidently was one of the former German liners recently purchased by Russia. The cruiser bore down on the Manora and signalled the latter to hoist her ensign. When this was done the cruiser proceeded.

Absolute Accord Exists Between the Two Nations Regarding Russia.

LONDON, August 9.—The Associated Press learns that absolute accord exists between the United States and Great Britain in respect to the rights of neutral commerce and when the declaration of Secretary Hay was published yesterday the State Department was informed that it was in entire accord with the attitude of Great Britain.

In order that Russia might understand the similarity of the British and American views, Lord Lansdowne directed the British Ambassador at St. Petersburg to protest against the Russian definition of contraband along the same lines as the declaration transmitted through Ambassador McCormick. Great Britain would like the same in view of the finding of the Vladivostok court, but if the new court declares as the British government anticipates, that international law did not justify the sinking of a neutral ship, then the question will be capable of easier adjustment.

The foreign office here denies that there will be any reference of the Knight Committee under question to the Hague Arbitration Court and says it is a matter for direct settlement between two governments. It is believed a peaceful settlement will be reached.

With reference to the constitution of a special admiralty prize court at the Russian capitol to reconsider the case the British steamer Kneller Commander announced from St. Petersburg last night, the British officials are confident that it will reverse the decision of the prize court at Vladivostok. They maintain that the decision declaring the steamer to be a lawful prize is not justified by international law and that whatever the result carried, Admiral Jagger had no right to sink her. Great Britain will not accept a settlement merely by the payment of a monetary sum, as the declaration principle should be established. This Russia cannot claim at this moment in view of the finding of the Vladivostok court, but if the new court declares as the British government anticipates, that international law did not justify the sinking of a neutral ship, then the question will be capable of easier adjustment.

The foreign office here denies that there will be any reference of the Knight Committee under question to the Hague Arbitration Court and says it is a matter for direct settlement between two governments. It is believed a peaceful settlement will be reached.

We have also received instructions from Mrs. H. Kelley and J. Finch to sell the fine furniture, pianos and jewelry, of Dr. S. A. Cloutier, Mrs. J. Dietrich, J. Ferguson, Andony and others, to satisfy for their estate mortgages.

DEMOCRATS ENJOYING A LIVELY CONTEST.

Laymance and English Are Putting Up a Winning Fight.

In the Forty-eighth District there is a struggle on for possession of the Democratic organization and two tickets are in the field. One headed by John M. English, the other by C. H. Abbott.

There is an interchange of candidates on the two tickets, but the interchange is not great enough to keep down the excitement. Both factions claim the affections of H. A. Luttrell, Alex Hirshberg, Thomas White, J. S. McManus. No matter which wins out the voices of these statesmen in miniature will be heard in the Convention.

The struggle against the machine has come to a head in this district at this primary election, although there have been underground murmurings of protest for the last three years. Laymance and English are against the machine. There has not been an equitable distribution of patronage, it is thought by the protesting faction headed by John M. English. It is also claimed that the machine is old fashioned and that the wheels have become clogged through excess of lubrication and the outside faction wasted a portion of the lubricant to come its way.

In the matter of principle there is no division as they are all Democrats and all the legislative candidates look alike to them. It looks as though Laymance and English will win out.

The tickets are as follows:

For Delegates to Democratic County Convention—Fifty-eighth district.

John M. English, George D. Hallahan, Wm. J. Laymance, Bert Borovich, Jas. McManus, James J. White, Hiram A. Luttrell, W. C. Price, William B. White, George T. Lu, Flash, John F. Conroy, I. J. Numa, P. E. Dalton, Alex Hirshberg, M. L. Rawson, John Collier, H. W. Anderson, R. W. Miller, J. L. McCarthy, J. C. Scott, Martin Ryan, Chas. L. French, James F. Sheehan, M. J. O'Gara, Thomas White, A. S. McDonald.

For delegates to Democratic State and Congressional Convention—Fifty-eighth Assembly district.

John M. English, Wm. Basil White, G. W. Hallahan, B. Borovich, John M. English, J. C. Scott, Hiram Luttrell, Delegates to the Democratic County Convention:

C. H. Abbott, C. A. Arklin, Charles Dwyer, Owen Feeney, T. J. Hopkins, J. J. Shanley, J. McElroy, A. A. Gilbert, Michael Flynn, Fred Ely, James McManus, P. Gallagher, R. W. Miller, John J. Barry, H. A. Luttrell, W. V. Kennedy, T. C. Joseph, Charles M. Kelly, J. C. McAvoy, Alex Hirshberg, W. C. Price, T. J. Sexton, Thomas Aschroft, Mark King, Thomas White, William O'Farrell.

FORTY-NINTH ASSEMBLY.

For delegates to Democratic County Convention—Fifty-ninth Assembly district.

P. S. Coke, M. J. White, W. C. Price, Marcus Jonas, John Saay, T. E. Middleton, R. E. Troy, Raymond Bliven, Fred Leonhard, Alex McManus, L. W. John, Henry H. Bruen, A. A. DeMars, John Dalton, S. Bracharach, J. C. Bullock, James Hennepin, Henry Schmitz, Ben Richards, W. E. Gibson, C. B. White, Patrick McQuaid, J. P. Sarsfield, R. Flagg, John Schoenfelder, Herman Beck, Robert Connally, E. L. Schmidt, Wm. S. Phinney.

Delegates to the Democratic County Convention—Sam Bell McKeek, Edward Muldoon, Seth Mann, Bert Neylein, Thomas Gaines, Warren Olney Jr., William Cuddy, T. C. Coogan, Frank Mulhern, Edward Ward, Edward Murphy, E. J. Erickson, James E. Bullock, Michael Gray, Ed. Driscoll, P. Dooly, T. F. Cunningham, Bert Connally, John McDonald, W. B. Rhinehart, M. Meyer, J. Murray, J. Hanby, P. McQuade, W. C. Fletcher, Peter Mulligan, M. J. Haran.

For delegates to Republican local (county) convention and subdivisions thereof—Fifty-ninth Assembly district—James H. Creely, Matthew Tevlin.

CLUB MEN

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN IF BRIGHT'S DISEASE AND DIABETES ARE NOT NOW BEING CURED BY FULTON'S COMPOUNDS?

Late reports just received: R. S. Fowler, prominent druggist, Buffalo, N. Y.: "I have to report two recent cures as follows: L. V. Drake, Diabetes, and Robert E. Colbric, Bright's Disease."

E. T. Show, 1815 Columbus ave., Philadelphia: "Mr. William Manley of my city has been cured of Bright's Disease by the Compound. He is to visit San Francisco in September and I have sent him a letter to you."

T. F. Cunningham and Agency Co., 333 Collins St., Melbourne, Australia: "We have four patients on the Diabetes Compound and in all the cases steady improvement is reported."

W. S. Phinney published the remarkable report from Auburn, N. Y., that Mrs. Lester Bell of that city had just successfully passed an examination for life insurance. In May, 1902, she was in the Auburn Hospital to suffer with Bright's Disease. She had a large tumor on her left eye, and it was thought that her death was expected hourly when she was put on Fulton's Remedy Compound with the above happy result.

Recoveries in Bright's Disease and Diabetes are now so common that they no longer excite comment from our agents, who simply report the facts as above in a few words as possible. J. S. Foyler is one of Buffalo's responsible business men. E. T. Show, 1815 Columbus ave., the A. S. Association of Philadelphia, the Union Manufacturing and Agency Co. is a prosperous Melbourne concern, and Mrs. Bell is the wife of an Auburn business man and the above cure can be absolutely relied upon. Fulton's discovery is making the whole country talk.

We again proclaim to the world the curability of Chronic Bright's Disease and Diabetes.

About 80 per cent of all cases are curable by the Fulton compounds. Send for literature and list of agents. Jno. J. Fulton Co., 409 Washington street, San Francisco, sole compounders.

We can assure Bright's Disease patients, ankylosis or numbness, without visible cause—kidney trouble after third month—frequent urination—moxie; wind falling vision—drowsiness—one or more of them.

Our Bros., Seventh and Broadway, Owl Drug Co., Thirteenth and Broadway, T. Tolson, Seventh and Market; San Joaquin Drug Co., Seventh and Willows Sts.,

Guy Reynolds and Jerry Tyrrel. The total vote will be about 210. The officers of the precinct were:

Inspector—Samuel Love; Judges—A. Gernett, O. T. Wilson, Clerks—E. Koertner, A. T. Alexander, Ballot Clerk—John Gallagher.

FIFTEENTH PRECINCT.

At the corner of Twenty-first street and San Pablo avenue there was a comparatively light vote cast at noon, only eighty ballots having gone into the box. Here both candidates had a small army of supporters. J. J. Naegle had charge of the fight for Randolph and under him were Thomas Quayle, W. J. Keating, C. Mack and F. E. Cody.

Mitchell's men were Henry Deme, J. L. Brady, James Gleason, William Britton, G. W. Curtis and Dr. Irvin. The officers of the precinct were:

Inspector—Samuel Cable.

Judges—J. L. Champlain, J. J. Nagle.

Clerks—Charles Timmins, Bert L. Quayle.

Ballot Clerk—William Duchrau.

TWENTY-FIFTH PRECINCT.

The twenty-fifth precinct polling place was located at 1922 Broadway. Here it seemed that Randolph had a majority of the thirty votes cast at noon. Randolph had a number of supporters who seemed confident of his success, among them being Frank Armstrong, F. Powers, Frank Johnson, R. W. Berriman, J. C. Ewing, Ross Bromley and H. Oberg.

Mitchell's assistants were E. Gibbs, A. C. Smith and H. A. Campbell. The officers of the precinct were:

Inspector—P. Healy.

Judges—Joseph Lancaster, Herman Harfst.

Clerks—Joseph H. Brock, W. B. Hardy.

Ballot Clerk—A. W. Perlmen.

For John Mitchell for Supervisor; for G. R. Lukens for Assemblyman; for G. R. Lukens for Senator. For delegates to Republican local (county) convention and subdivisions thereof—W. W. Worden, Arthur H. Breed, Albert H. Elliott, Guy C. Earl, Dr. Hayward G. Thomas, Charles E. Snook, Fred M. Hathaway, A. H. Marx, Dr. W. L. Dunn, Mortimer Smith, John W. Stetson, Dr. H. B. Mehrmann, H. M. Sanborn, L. G. Parker, E. J. Osgood, M. J. Hallahan, R. D. Holmes, Frank Galmarino, E. T. Leiter, Fred Goodwin, George Nickerson, William Jones, Herman Harfst, Walter J. Taylor, Dr. J. M. Milton, W. E. Griffiths.

Delegates for George E. Randolph for Supervisor; G. R. Lukens for Senator; John A. Bliss for Assemblyman; for delegates to Republican local (county) convention and subdivisions thereof—Fifteenth Assembly district—J. H. Hunt, George Winchester, T. Quayle, W. J. Quigley, Fred Hersey, C. Jorgenson, M. A. Thomas, Dr. L. E. Nicholson, Wilson S. Gould, S. L. Carlson, J. J. Nagle, W. N. Hennings, D. C. Borland, Thomas M. Robinson, Joseph Keating, John Singen, Guy D. Reynolds, A. J. Cloud, Dr. F. J. Saxe, Captain E. R. Hunt, Charles Strubing, J. Rittler, Jerry H. Tyrell, W. L. Boldt, J. H. Potter, E. H. Luke.

FORTY-NINTH ASSEMBLY.

Interest in the primaries centers in the upper portion of the Forty-ninth Assembly district. It is there that the political fights are on. An Assemblyman and a Supervisor are to come out of this district and for both positions there are opposing Republican candidates.

John Mitchell and George Randolph, opposing Supervisory candidates, have each placed a ticket of delegates in the field. Also, each has sought to strengthen his forces by combining with one of the opposing Assembly candidates. Mitchell has joined forces with John J. Burke, while Randolph has combined with Morris Flynn.

John Burke has many friends, who are working hard today for his success, and while they acknowledge that they have a hard fight on their hands, they believe that their man will be the Republican candidate for Assembly.

Up to noon today the vote in the Sixth ward and the vote in the sixteenth precinct were:

For Randolph—Charles Geoghegan, Inspector; C. J. Redding, Southern Pacific Company; L. R. Boehr, architect; Dr. W. H. Fonte, Dr. Derby, L. F. Fraser, Geo. Short, J. O. Smart, J. J. McNeely, E. B. Dow, A. F. Farnham, Thomas Calvo, H. McLeish, Al. Corfian, J. H. Harold, N. Parsons, P. J. Rogers, C. L. Philbrick, A. E. Routhier.

For Randolph—Frank Williams, Southern Pacific Company; Dr. W. H. Fonte, Dr. Derby, L. F. Fraser, Geo. Short, J. O. Smart, J. J. McNeely, E. B. Dow, A. F. Farnham, Thomas Calvo, H. McLeish, Al. Corfian, J. H. Harold, N. Parsons, P. J. Rogers, C. L. Philbrick, A. E. Routhier.

FIFTY-FIRST ASSEMBLY.

Interest in the primaries centers in the upper portion of the Fifty-first Assembly district. It is there that the political fights are on. An Assemblyman and a Supervisor are to come out of this district and for both positions there are opposing Republican candidates.

John Mitchell and George Randolph, opposing Supervisory candidates, have each placed a ticket of delegates in the field. FIFTY-FIRST ASSEMBLY.

Interest in the primaries centers in the upper portion of the Fifty-first Assembly district. It is there that the political fights are on. An Assemblyman and a Supervisor are to come out of this district and for both positions there are opposing Republican candidates.

John Mitchell and George Randolph, opposing Supervisory candidates, have each placed a ticket of delegates in the field. Also, each has sought to strengthen his forces by combining with one of the opposing Assembly candidates. Mitchell has joined forces with John J. Burke, while Randolph has combined with Morris Flynn.

John Burke has many friends, who are working hard today for his success, and while they acknowledge that they have a hard fight on their hands, they believe that their man will be the Republican candidate for Assembly.

Up to noon today the vote in the sixteenth precinct was:

For Randolph—Charles Geoghegan, Inspector; C. J. Redding, Southern Pacific Company; L. R. Boehr

CLAIM MONEY THAT WAS STOLEN.

CENTRAL BANK DOES NOT WISH TO BECOME EN-TANGLER.

The Central Bank has begun an action in which it asks the courts to stop various suits begun against it by L. Lange, H. P. Jensen & Co., Julius Jorgensen, John C. Scott, Edward C. Hammond and H. H. Birckholm, the Danish Consul at San Francisco, to recover from it $3300 and $17.50 interest on money deposited with it by Julius Jorgensen, an absconding bank clerk now serving a year's imprisonment in Denmark for his offense. In the meantime an effort has been made by different people to get possession of the money. The bank says that it is willing to pay the money into the court and let the claimants fight the matter out among themselves, but it wants to be left out of the thing entirely, and prays that these people be restrained from prosecuting their several actions against the bank and made to interest their own causes in the court.

Jorgensen, who served nearly his full term in jail and will be released shortly, and during all of this time the money he stole has laid in the several banks here. He was charged with having taken about $8000 and coming to this country with the firm's typewriter, bringing with him his two small children and leaving a wife behind.

He was apprehended at Berkeley and arrested and sent back to Denmark. Johnsen, Jorgensen's companion, was released, as it was shown that she knew nothing of Jorgensen's theft, supposing that they were traveling on his own money. Before Jorgensen was taken back she presented him with an heir, and since he has remained in this country waiting for him to return to her, she having secured a position through the interest taken in her case by Consul Birckholm.

The two children were returned to their mother and Jorgensen sent to jail for a year. This is now about up. His lawyers have made a claim to the money in the Central Bank, which is about half of the money on deposit here.

PROBATE NOTES.

An appraisement of the estate of Frank A. Perry was filed with the County Clerk today, and shows the property to be valued at $1500. It consists chiefly of a piece of realty on Center street, near West Fifth.

The hearing of the final account and partition for the distribution in the matter of the estate of the late Charles T. Wilkinson was taken up this morning. The main asset of the estate is fifty acres of land near Agua Caliente creek.

R. Hunter, W. H. Wright and D. McDonald were appointed appraisers of the estate of James W. Merchant by Judge Melvin this morning.

TRIBUNES DEFEAT THE HUBS.
The Tribunes are certainly playing good ball. They met and defeated The Hubs Sunday by a score of 10 to 8. The boys' play well together. Next Sunday they will meet the J. C. Hoovers of San Rafael.

At the same time the wreck today everything was practically the same as yesterday. The chair car turned completely over, has settled into the quicksand until only the wheels are now visible, and entrance to the interior cannot be gained. It is now said a proclamation has been issued for the public launching of an organized movement to patrol the Fountain and Arkansas rivers in the hope of finding more bodies of victims of the wreck. Hundreds of men responded promptly to the work has been taken up under the direction of citizens. The railroad situation has materially improved, traffic being resumed this morning over the Rio Grande tracks. The officers here had no information to communicate, and did not care to give an estimate of the financial loss, as they had taken no notice of pecuniary accounts in a time like this. Officials returned to the scene of the wreck early this morning with wrecking crews and today will probably be able to pull out all trace of the terrible catastrophe.

RELIEF FUND.
At 10:30 a train arrived bearing bodies. Response to the Mayor's proclamation was hearty and at this time two hundred searchers have left the city, and many more are being constantly added to the list.

A relief fund was started early today and several hundred dollars has been subscribed for the aid of the needy family and to aid in the recovery of other victims.

Dr. E. K. Stimmel a prominent dentist of Pueblo, who was reported as lost yesterday, escaped by leaving the train at Colorado Springs and returned here this morning.

GLOOM

IN THE CITY

Many Funerals Held Today in City of Pueblo.

PUEBLO, Colo., August 9.—A cast of deep gloom has settled down upon this city today, the day following the railroad horror which snuffed out one hundred or more lives yesterday.

Many houses are closed out of respect for the dead and more than forty private homes are darkened and in mourning. The tragic victims of yesterday will not be the only ones or the most pitted as already cases of total loss of mind as a result of the shock when told of loss of loved ones are reported.

FUNERAL.

All the citizens have joined in an immense funeral procession, winding unceasingly from one morgue to another. Death in one of its horrible forms, has become so common that delicate women and innocent children, ever guarded from the touch of tragedy, are freely allowed to gaze upon it. Scarce a person in the city who does not suffer a personal loss, knowing some one of the victims as a friend. The eye of mourning, full and sad, is universal.

The calamity is the heaviest that has ever fallen on the city. The first emotion that seized the city yesterday morning as the news appeared was one of incredulity. It has settled down to a horrible certainty.

FAMILIES WIPED OUT.

Entire families have been wiped out, an instance being that of J. O. Thomas, commercial agent for the Santa Fe Railroad, who, together with his wife, lost their lives in the morning.

All night long the search was kept up and an occasional body was located, but in the darkness work was necessarily slow. That most treacherous of streams, the Fountain river, into which nearly all the dead bodies were washed, this morning had failed to act as its normal condition and work of rescue will be made easier, although it is necessary to wade through quicksand, which proved such a factor in delaying the work yesterday. This did not deter the searchers today and as soon as daylight came in many men took up the task again. The number has increased as the day wore on. Bodies have been recovered more than ten miles from the disaster and rumors that bodies had been found even further distant are heard.

DEATH LIST.

The death list, as compiled from the best obtainable sources of information, at an early hour this morning, shows a total of 66 identified dead, total known missing 28; and unidentified bodies 6; making an even hundred lives lost. This will more than likely be increased.

Many of the bodies had been removed from the morgues to their former places of abode and preparations for burial begun. Hundreds of people were still missing through the morgues this morning, some with missing limbs, others seeking to join their families.

The death loss of Pueblo alone reaches the top figure in its history, now given as 66 lives with forty identifications already.

SCENE OF WRECK.

At the scene of the wreck today everything was practically the same as yesterday. The chair car turned completely over, has settled into the quicksand until only the wheels are now visible, and entrance to the interior cannot be gained.

It is now said a proclamation has been issued for the public launching of an organized movement to patrol the Fountain and Arkansas rivers in the hope of finding more bodies of victims of the wreck.

Hundreds of men responded promptly to the work has been taken up under the direction of citizens.

The railroad situation has materially improved, traffic being resumed this morning over the Rio Grande tracks.

The officers here had no information to communicate, and did not care to give an estimate of the financial loss, as they had taken no notice of pecuniary accounts in a time like this.

wreck this morning with wrecking crews and today will probably be able to pull out all trace of the terrible catastrophe.

REPAIR SHOPS ARE DESTROYED.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 9.—The repair shops of the American Refrigerating Transit company, including 65 refrigerator cars, were burned today entailing a loss estimated at $300,000, fully covered by insurance.

Adjoining property was menaced by the flames, which are supposed to have started from a spark of a passing engine, but the seven companies that responded to the general alarm kept the fire within the confines of the building in which it started. This building was 75 by 230 feet. About 75 men were employed there. The shop was under the control of the Gould lines.

COUNT MONEY IN THE TREASURY.

The cash in the county treasury was counted yesterday by Deputy Auditor Myron A. Whidden and Deputy District W. H. L. Hynes, who made the following statement of the money. The total amount in the treasury is $365,169.24. Carried over from last month was $334,058.91, received from other sources, $9,145.77, making a total to be accounted for during the month of $425,904.62. The disbursements during the month were $12,735.74, leaving a balance of $365,169.4. The amounts and kinds of money are: gold, $38,890; silver, $1369.24; special deposit in the Central Bank, $80,000; in the Union National Bank, $80,000, and in the First National Bank, $80,000.

Our Tangled Jurisprudence

The San Francisco Chronicle makes a shrewd thrust at the lawyers who are agitating the proposition to create three intermediate courts of appeal to relieve the pressure on the Supreme Court, when it suggests that they first reform their own methods. The calendar of the Supreme Court is over-crowded, and the business of the court years in arrears, mainly because of the multitude of frivolous appeals. No matter how often a point has been passed upon by the Supreme Court, it can again be appealed. As the Constitution requires the court to file a written opinion stating the reasons for the ruling in every case, the frivolous appeals, many of them taken solely to protract litigation and prevent speedy adjudication, simply pile up useless work for the tribunal of last resort. In the great majority of capital cases, appeals are taken merely to put off the day of execution. While the Supreme Court is not wholly guiltless of encouraging this method of trifling with the course of justice, the bar itself is most to blame for the overcrowded condition of the calendar and the interminable delays in reaching final judgment. Not only that, the condition thus created operates as an encouragement to lawyers who abuse the processes of the courts to stave off final adjudication.

Litigation in California has become more cumbersome, expensive and protracted than in any State in the Union. The method of selecting juries is an insult to common sense, and an imposition on the public. The granting of continuances on trifling pretexts is another abuse which the bench connives at. In fact, the bench abets the bar in all the abuses which have operated to bring our system of jurisprudence into disrepute, and in thus abetting delays which protract litigation and enormously increase the expense and annoyance incident to legal settlement of disputes, the courts have notably increased their own labors.

The remedy for this unsatisfactory condition is not to increase the number of courts and provide for more delays, but a reform of the practice itself. If the courts would discourage frivolous appeals and set their face against continuances, they would expedite the course of justice and materially lighten their own labors. Having made a tangled web of our system of jurisprudence the lawyers propose to enlarge the web at the tangle may be still more perplexing and exasperating to the unhappy litigant. It is infrequently the case that a lawyer shamelessly alleges his own ignorance or neglect as a reason for asking a continuance. If judges would sternly rebuke such requests and firmly require due diligence the court calendars would not be so clogged and justice would not travel with such a leaden heel.

The Agricultural College

The San Francisco Chronicle has a curious habit of discussing questions in an inconclusive way, either letting the reader draw his own conclusions from the premises it lays down, or conveying its own conclusions by implication or inference rather than by the process of logical deduction. An example of this inconclusive method of discussion is afforded by an editorial printed in the Chronicle of Monday, headed "The Agricultural College." After laying down the proposition that the legitimate object of the college is the education of experts and leaders, it goes on to say:

"The foundations of an agricultural education are in the pure sciences of physics, chemistry, biology, mathematics and economics. For these the general equipment of a university is essential and sufficient."

Proceeding further, the article adds:

"Nevertheless, our present agricultural college is almost an entire failure as a school of applied science. The foundations of an agricultural education can be laid there, but the superstructure cannot be built, for there is no college farm and no college stock. It is no more possible to teach agriculture without a farm than chemistry without a laboratory."

As near as we can gather the Chronicle believes that the general science department of the University and a college farm are both necessary in imparting a technical education to agricultural experts. As a college farm is out of the question at Berkeley, the inference is that the Chronicle would move the University to some place where a farm can be obtained.

If it does not mean to imply this conclusion, the inference is that the thing to do is to separate the agricultural college from the University, and locate it where dairying can be practiced and taught, and the typical products of California can be cultivated as object lessons. If that is what the Chronicle means, why does it not say so? By declaring the Agricultural College a failure, yet arguing that the general science departments of the University are necessary to the agricultural student, the Chronicle leaves the whole matter suspended in the air.

While the absence of a farm is a serious drawback to the college, that institution is far from being a failure. It has fallen far short of the hopes of its founders, and the reasonable expectations of the public, but its shortcomings are not so much due to the lack of a farm as to the policy which has governed the University. The "Cow College" has been treated as an object of derision. The classicists and speculative scientists, the historians, rhetoricians and others of the belles lettres school, have viewed the college with undisguised contempt. The student therein has been the stock butt of ridicule. The funds which legitimately should be donated to maintaining the Agricultural College have been systematically diverted to other departments. It has been used to defray the cost of educating bachelors of science, philosophy and letters, civil and mining engineers, pharmacists, and the like,—for everything in fact but furnishing facilities for the education and training of agricultural experts. From the moneys and lands given the State by the Federal Government, in accordance with the provisions of the Morrill act, the University derives an annual income of nearly $100,000, not half of which is expended on the Agricultural College. It is this diversion of funds and "the atmosphere" that pervades collegiate circles in Berkeley that are more than anything else responsible for the failure of the Agricultural College to fulfill its mission. We have set schoolteachers and preaching scientists and scientific preachers to teaching the science of agriculture. It is like putting hens to the task of teaching pigs to swim.

It is stated that the Democratic leaders are urging James J. Hill to take the Democratic nomination for Governor in Minnesota. It is to be hoped that the railway magnate will make the race. His candidacy would emphasize the trust issue and sharply define the attitude of the two great parties on that question. Mr. Hill is both a free trader and a trust organizer. He is one of the greatest railway operators in the country, reputed to be worth $50,000,000, and the organizer of the Northern Securities Company, the suit for the dissolution of which brought down on the President's head the wrath of the trust combinations. Representing plutocracy and the trust principle in an exceptional degree, Mr. Hill's candidacy for Governor would put the trust issue to a square test before the people.

After reading the official reports the Russian Generals send to the Czar, we are constrained to believe the Russians are so stricken with sorrow and remorse at the frightful slaughter they inflict on the Japanese that they cannot bear to remain and witness the effect of their own bloody work. So they turn about and go away, giving the Japanese survivors an opportunity to bury their dead.

The Tribune Stated Facts

The Industrial News says THE TRIBUNE misstated the facts in its comments on the "recall" provision of the Los Angeles charter. This paper said the "recall" provision places it in the power of 25 per cent of the voters of a particular political division to take away an office that it requires the votes of a majority to elect a man to. We never discussed the facts of the case of Councilman Davenport, so far as his official acts are concerned, nor have we pretended to pass upon the merits of the charges against him. But we did say, and repeat the assertion that the "recall" provision does permit 25 per cent of the voters to take away an office to which the incumbent has been regularly elected. To prove this, we quote from the Industrial News itself:

"The charter of Los Angeles provides that when the acts of a municipal servant do not suit his masters—the people—upon the filing of a petition containing the names of 25 per cent of the registered voters of his ward, an election may be held to determine who his successor shall be. He may be a candidate himself, but the people have the power to nominate and elect somebody else if a majority or plurality should vote for another candidate."

The fact that a man may be a candidate for reelection does not alter the proposition that his office has been taken from him at the demand of one-quarter of the voters. The "recall" operates to oust a man from office and render a new election for his successor necessary. We remarked that it was extraordinary that a minority should be given the power to undo and take away what only a majority can do and convey. That phase of the question may admit of argument, but the effect of the "recall" provision does not. Our contemporary refutes itself.

While the Tom Taggarts, the Pat McCarren, the Billy Sheehans and the Charlie Murphys are contending for the leadership of the Democratic party, a former Democratic leader—a statesman of an altogether different type—is dying at his home in Sweet Springs, Missouri. An imposing figure in his day, George Graham Vest seems to attract little attention from his party associates in his last hours. Yet the last speech he delivered in the Senate was one of the best ever heard in that body. He had sat in the Senate for twenty-four years, and previously had been a Senator in the Confederate Congress. He possessed a rare gift of oratory, had a broad, cultured mind, and he combined personal rectitude with intellectual honesty and courage. The Democracy of the present day has little use for such a man, yet the party never stood in such sore need of men of the Vest type. He closes his eyes while his party is crying "Peccavi" and wearing the garb of penitence, and its leaders find their business activities on the racetrack or in trust syndicates.

Hints for the Ladies.

Salt fish are most quickly and best freshened by soaking in sour milk.

Mildew stains can be removed by rubbing ammonia diluted with water.

Add a few nasturtium seeds to mixed pickles of plain cucumber pickles; they will keep the vinegar clear.

Cold meat, chopped fine, covered with mayonnaise dressing, and decorated rings of hard-boiled eggs and parsley, makes a delicious supper salad when laid on nice, crisp lettuce leaves.

A tablespoonful of powdered sugar stirred in a bottle of cream will put off the souring process for at least twenty-four hours, provided the cream is kept near the ice.

When preparing fresh peas for the pot it is advisable to throw them first into a bowl of cold water. Put a pinch of soda and about a teaspoonful of sugar into the boiling water when ready to cook, as this method retains the color.

AN OLD IDEA.

Shown to be Absolutely False by Modern Science.

People used to think that baldness was one of those things which are handed down from generation to generation, from father to son—just like a family heirloom.

Science has shown the falseness of this belief by proving that baldness itself is not a constitutional disease, but the result of a germ invasion of which only Herpetic will effectively rid the scalp.

Washing only cleans the scalp of Dandruff. It doesn't kill the germs.

Destroy the cause you remove the effect.

Newbro's Herpetic will do this in every case. It is also a delightful dressing.

FINAL RALLY IN FAVOR OF JOHN MITCHELL.

Young Men Promise to Support Him at the Polls Today.

The members of the Young Men's Republican Club of the Second Ward, held very interesting and enthusiastic meeting last night in Milton Hall Twenty-eighth and San Pablo Avenue. The hall was crowded to the door, and the interest displayed by those attending did not cease for a moment. If the Mitchell partisans show as much loyalty at the polls today as they did at last night's meeting, his election is assured.

Ex-Deputy Attorney Charles J. Snock opened the meeting, saying:

"I am proud to be permitted to speak to you young men here tonight and especially proud to see you so splendidly organized for tomorrow's battle, which is to be a warm one, but which we are surely going to win."

"I am proud to be the friend of John Mitchell to speak a word for him here tonight, and to know that you young men have so enthusiastically endorsed him, for he well deserves all you can do for him."

John Mitchell is an ideal man, an ideal candidate, honest, capable, accommodating and generous. He has served the interests of this district faithfully and well. Get him nominated tomorrow, and then you can elect him, and in doing this you will have done something that will afford you credit and satisfaction."

JUDGE SMITH.

Judge Mortimer Smith was next called for and made the following remarks:

"I am pleased to be with you young men in this hall where young and old men before you have prepared for an important and successful issue so many victories like unto the one that we shall win tomorrow. We have been successful in the past because we have organized and stood together, and so we shall be in this instance. You have young blood here and it is young blood that wins in this age."

"Our candidate, John Mitchell, is given by Dan Collahan, Ben Johnson, Mr. Hanifin, Al Williams, J. Somers and Lee Murphy, and Walter Taylor, respectively, secretary and president of the club.

At the close of the meeting three hearty cheers were given for Mr. Mitchell, and altogether the meeting was one that augured well for Mr. Mitchell's election to day.

HE OBJECTS TO VACCINATION.

Editor TRIBUNE—Perhaps the Oakland public is not aware (they soon will be) of the fact that many school children are refused admission into the public schools of our city unless they are able to show the evidence of having had their blood poisoned by vaccination.

This morning I tried to place my child, a boy aged nine years, in the Sweet School but was promptly refused because I am unwilling to allow his system to be poisoned by the so-called operation of vaccination, a vile, nasty, horrid practice which long ago should have been relegated to oblivion, but which is alleged to be a preventative of small-pox.

I have seen too many and varied results of this alleged preventive of small-pox by vaccination to be willing to, with a clear conscience, submit my child to its uncertain, baneful effects; in fact, I could not honestly recommend it for a dog.

I have been a student of medicine, was a soldier in the civil war, and have seen both: small-pox in its worst form and also many results of vaccination and in the light of my experience, I'd just as soon subject my child to the bite of a mad dog or a venomous serpent than to vaccination and there are others.

This law simply compels my child and many others, to grow up in ignorance and deprives them of the great and fundamental privilege of our country, a free education.

Nine out of every ten physicians, if their "professional ethics" would permit them to stand pat on this subject, would bear me out in the statement of the fact that the vaccination is dangerous to itself that vaccination is dangerous to itself, even if present in its most virulent form.

There are physicians in Oakland who have gone on record by having statements published in progressive medical journals to the effect that vaccination is not only dangerous, but absolutely useless as a preventative of small-pox.

If vaccination prevents small-pox, then the children who are thus "prevented" have nothing to fear and if the parents of those that are not are willing to take this risk, it ought not to disturb the minds of the physicians, who, in their solicitude for the welfare of the public, have engineered this compulsory vaccination act through the State Legislature.

Trusting that this will receive the attention it deserves, that we shall soon be free from a curse worse than human slavery, I remain, very respectfully,

CHARLES F. BULL.

SECRETARY STEAINS TAKES THE SIDE OF THE ALA-MEDA PEOPLE.

ALAMEDA, August 9.—Matters concerning the welfare of this city and Alameda county were discussed at a well-attended meeting of the Alameda Advancement Association held in the City Hall last night. In the absence of the president of the organization, George W. Scott, Vice-President Philip S. Teller, officiated. The principal speakers were Edwin A. Stearns, secretary of the Oakland Board of Trade, and Rev. Frank S. Bush, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, who returned last week from an extensive tour of the Eastern States. Rufus P. Jennings, secretary of the California Promotion Committee, was scheduled to deliver an address, but was unable to be present. He was represented by H. A. Wright, who briefly related what that body was doing toward advertising California.

Mr. Stearns, in the course of his talk, said:

"I am pleased at observing so many present and at the interest manifested in affairs that should appeal to the civic pride of the community. In the promotion of the welfare of a community, this portion of California is famous and prosperous. It is attracting Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and the entire county."

"I will take advantage of this opportunity to put myself right with the residents of Alameda as to my attitude and the attitude of the Oakland Board of Trade with respect to the project of consolidation of the cities on the east side of the bay. Nine years ago the Oakland Board of Trade took up the annexation question and, after carefully investigating, decided that the time for consolidation was not ripe. The Oakland Board of Trade has considered the matter again of late and it is my opinion that the general sentiment of the members of that organization that the time for consolidation is not yet ripe. When we of Oakland can offer Alameda as good streets, schools, government and other advantages that you now possess superior to us, then it will be time for us to suggest to Alameda that she join Oakland. It appears that the time of annexation is a long way in the future, but I believe that the time will come when there will exist the city and county of Alameda."

Rev. Mr. Bush, in his address, said, in part:

"The relative advantage of Alameda over many of the East cities that I visited within the last two months are numerous. We have on the cleanest and best governed municipalities in the United States. One thing that impressed me on my trip East was the commercial value of the residents of Eastern cities, place on place. Nearly every city, town and village has a civic organization that looks to its interests. Alameda is to the Pacific Coast what Atlantic City is to the Atlantic Coast. The great Eastern resort has the most equitable climate on that side of the continent, as Alameda has on this side."

The commission denied Edwin Fisk a permit to operate a captive balloon for the purpose of giving extended views to tourists visiting the valley.

George Fisk, a photographer whose house is located on the hill, was granted permission to erect another building.

The commissioners' present were C. G. Gibbons, William G. Kerckhoff, Frank H. Sholt, J. C. Wilson, Thomas A. Hendon and Secretary J. J. Lermen.

THE DELINQUENT FOR SEPTEMBER.

To those who follow the movements of fashion, "The Delinquent for September" is an exceptionally interesting number, containing advance information upon the end-of-the-year styles, and illustrating the latest developments in the field. The literary department is also attractive. The first page is given to a timely article on "The Women of Russia," by Wolf von Scherzer. Rebecca Williams is the subject of an interesting biography. "Women in Art," the delightful series of pictures and letters of travel is brought to an end. Dr. Grace Peckham Murray writes on "Body Symmetry," while Hamilton Green, another mother of the edible "Joy of Living" papers, and there are well-illustrated short stories by Alden Arthur Knipe, Albert Bigelow Paine and Francis Lynde. For the young folk are given some pastimes and an entertainment and helpful character, including the continuation of the "Little Garden Calendar" and further adventures of Tommy Postoffice, as well as an instructive paper by Lina Bear on the various departments of the Post Office. The interests of the home are treated thoroughly and practically in the various departments, which are in charge of experts.

BUNCH TOGETHER

Coffee has a curious way of finally attacking some organ.

All that come from coffee are cumulative, that is, unless the coffee is taken away and new trouble is continually appearing and the old ones get worse.

"To begin with," says a Kansas, "I was a slave to coffee just as thousands of others today, though I could not drink it without getting a headache every morning for break fast and I had sick headaches that kept me in bed several days every month. Could hardly keep my food in my stomach but would vomit as long as I could throw anything up and when I could get hot coffee to stay in my stomach I thought I was better."

"Well, two years ago this Spring I was sick with rheumatism and could not use my right arm to do anything, had heart trouble, was nervous. My nerves were all unstrung and my mind was all the time on my face and hands yellow as a pumkin. My doctor said it was heart disease and rheumatism and my neighbors said I had Bright's Disease and was going to die."

"Well, I did not know what on earth was the matter and every morning would drag myself out of bed and go to breakfast, not to eat anything but to force down some more coffee. Then in a little while I would be so nervous my heart would beat like every morning I told my husband I believed coffee was the cause of this trouble and that I thought I would try Postum which I had seen advertised. He said 'All right' so we got Postum and although I did not like it at first I got right down to business and made it according to directions, then it was fine and the whole family got to using it and I tell you it has worked wonders for me. Thanks to Postum in place of the poison, coffee, I now enjoy good health, have not been in bed with sick headache for two years although I had it for thirty years before I began Postum and my nerves are now strong and I have no trouble from my heart or from the rheumatism form."

GEN. KUROKI WINS ANOTHER IMPORTANT BATTLE.

Russians Fight for a Short Time and Then Run Away.

GENERAL KUROKI'S HEADQUARTERS IN THE FIELD, via Seoul, August 1.—(Delayed in transmission.)—Yesterday's battle was the most important which General Kuroki's army has fought since crossing the Yalu. Many more Russians were engaged than in the former battle. They occupied an equally strong position, having for a long time occupied the area over which the Japanese maneuvered. The Japanese victory upon this occasion, if not more important than that on the Yalu, was won against greater odds and was consequently a better test of the mettle of their troops and more creditable to their valor. The result was that the Japanese gained ten miles or more on their advance toward Liao Yank.

How far the Russians have retreated is not known yet, but only one strong, strategical and defensive position interposes between General Kuroki's army and Liao Yang, that being situated eight miles south of the city.

It is impossible to estimate the Russian casualties during the engagement, and reports of losses on the Japanese side were not rendered this morning, while the Russians and Japanese are stretched over a long line of country. The Russians are known to have four divisions in the field between General Kuroki and Liao Yang and between that point and Mukden, a larger proportion of the men being Poles from Europe.

The theatre of the part of the battle witnessed by the correspondent of the Associated Press, was a valley beginning three miles from the Yank. This valley, which is about ten miles long, nowhere more than a mile wide, and running north and south, is level, covered with high corn, giving the troops fine cover.

In the morning the two armies were confronting each other across the valley. The Japanese army was stationed on the ridge of hills fronting the pass, while the Russians held a higher range west of the valley. An artillery engagement began in the morning and lasted until 5 p.m. during which neither side appeared to any advantage, so far as spectators could judge. The Russians had batteries in the high hills beyond the village of Towan commanding the Liao Yang road, which the Japanese shelled heavily all day from the front and left without silencing.

The Japanese had two or more batteries in the hills and one or two batteries in the valley on the plain with no cover except the high corn, which the Russians never discovered, focusing all their fire on the batteries in the hills.

A spectacular feature of the day was the advance of the Japanese infantry across the valley, which began at 5 o'clock in the evening and resulted in the occupation of all the Russian gun positions and their infantry entrenchments within the space of two hours. The Russians, as usual, could not withstand the charges of the Japanese infantry and fled through the hills.

The appearance of the fled this morning indicates a complete rout, the Russians leaving much clothing and camp paraphernalia behind them.

An observation station just to the right of the town in the village of Towan from which Lieutenant general Sakharoff, commander of the First Siberian Army Corps, witnessed the engagement, dashed down a hill in retreat, one gun was overturned and left at the foot of the declivity where it fell.

Grip Pains

It would be utterly impossible to imagine anything more distressing than Grippe pains. They are simply indescribable and seem to be composed of the most intense sensations known.

Yet they can be relieved, and in a very short time, by taking the greatest remedy on earth for pains of any kind. Their soothing influence upon the nerves is felt throughout the entire system.

Dr. Miles'
Anti Pain Pills

I had Dr. Miles' Anti Pain Pills, and after taking 3 doses the pain disappeared, and I slept peacefully. My brother has a swelling on his neck, and uses them, a they ease the pain, and leave no bad effects than quelling powders.

NO SICKNESS AT SANTA CRUZ.

CITIZENS TAKE STEPS TO DENY STORIES OF PREVALENCE OF DISEASE.

SANTA CRUZ, August 9.—The proverbial mountain has been made of a mole hill in Santa Cruz with the last few weeks and the good citizens of this place are now busily engaged in tearing that mountain down.

A short time ago a few families from an interior town came to Santa Cruz with their children one of whom was taken down with scarletina immediately after its arrival here and two or three of the others were shortly thereafter showing symptoms of the same complaint. They had brought their illness from their homes, every precaution was taken to keep them apart from other people in order that there could be no possible chance of contagion and in a few days the children had recovered.

The mischief was done however. The opportunity had been seized by the knocker and he was not slow in getting in his insidious work. He spread the news broadcast that scarlet and typhoid fever were epidemic here when the truth of the matter was that there was not a single case of either.

The newspapers in the San Joaquin and Sacramento valleys sounded the alarm, thereby giving the knockers all to their enterprise. They also tried to make the contagion reach Capitol, but by this time the county physician had taken the measure and a cool toll was given a clean bill of health.

The stories seemed to have been directed at the Sea Beach Hotel and the Tented City, the managers of which J. C. Leonard and F. W. Swanton are brothers-in-law who are largely responsible for the progressive spirit which has been evidenced this season in Santa Cruz and this was the only means that the knockers could find to put out the fire of their creation.

This morning the TRIBUNE correspondent in company with Dr. Foster, secretary of the State Board of Health who came here to investigate the matter, and Mark M. Plaisted, the editor of the Fresno Democrat visited the leading physicians and merchants of Santa Cruz, not one of whom knew of a malignant case of either disease to exist here. Doctor Foster expressed his surprise that there was so little illness in the place considering the fact that there are thousands of strangers here who half from the four corners of the globe.

"I have my wife and little girl with me," said the doctor. "I love them as much as any husband and father can love his family and surely I would keep them here if I did not know that they are absolutely free from danger."

SENTENCE CONFIRMED.

MANILA, August 9.—F. L. Dorr and E. F. O'Brien, formerly the owners and editors of "Freedom" a paper published in this city, were sentenced sometime ago, by two of the Philippine courts to six months' imprisonment and a fine of $1,000 for libeling M. T. Tavares, a member of the Philippine Commission. This sentence has now been confirmed by the Supreme Court of the United States, where an appeal was lodged and the prisoners have been committed to the prison at Bilibid.

BUY TWO SCHOOL SITES.

BOARD OF EDUCATION TAKES ACTION TOWARDS SECURING LAND.

The Board of Education by resolution last night agreed to purchase two pieces of property offered for sites for new schools if the sellers would agree to certain conditions. The first piece is at Forty-eighth and West streets, and will be the first to be built upon.

The resolution recommended by the Committee on School Houses and Sites adopted was as follows:

"Outland, August 1, 1904. To the Honorable, the Board of Education:—In the matter of a school site for the neighborhood of Forty-eighth and West streets, we would recommend the acceptance of the offer made by the Mitchell Real Estate Company to sell a piece of land roughly described as follows: 266 feet fronting on Market street, by 25 feet on Thirtyninth street, and 25 feet on Apartment street, for the sum of $10,000, provided that the following stipulations must be made with the owners of the property:

"That the parties selling the land shall guarantee to pay all taxes on said property for the fiscal year 1904-05 and district assessment for main outlet sewer at Thirtyninth street now under course of construction, the assessment to be levied within the next twelve days."

The explicit cause of complaint is that, although the transportation company published a freight rate on boats and ships from interior points within a certain radius, which is the same as that from Boston, some manufacturers have been refused through the advertising of June 1, 1903, and have been put to the expense of sending the freight to Boston in addition to what was formerly the through rate.

that the schools had opened up with a fair attendance, but that about two-tenths of the six-year-olds were absent. He laid this to the vaccination.

MRS. OCDEN GOELET WAS THE VICTIM.

NEW YORK, August 9.—Mrs. Ogden Goelot, according to the American, was the victim of the $200,000 jewelry robbery reported to have occurred in Newport last June. Although all knowledge of the case is denied by the Rhode Island authorities, it is said that Mrs. Goelot has just come to this city from Ochre Court, her summer home at Newport, and is actively engaged in aiding the detectives.

The published list of missing gems contains a black pearl "dog collar," which Mrs. Goelot is known to have owned. No duplicate of this magnificent necklace is known to exist among the society women of America.

It is stated that the detectives are working on the theory that the work was not done by a professional thief and the publication of a list of the missing gems was made only with a view to preventing their sale.

CHARGES DISCRIMINATION.

BOSTON, August 9.—An investigation has been opened here by the Interstate Commerce Commission, represented by Commissioner Charles A. Prouty, on complaint of the Committee on Transportation and Commerce of the New England Shoe and Leather Association, charging discrimination on the part of the Manufacturers and Mining Transportation Company in the matter of shipment of shoes from interior points in New England outside of Boston, to East St. Louis.

The explicit cause of complaint is that, although the transportation company published a freight rate on boats and ships from interior points within a certain radius, which is the same as that from Boston, some manufacturers have been refused through the advertising of June 1, 1903, and have been put to the expense of sending the freight to Boston in addition to what was formerly the through rate.

TO BUILD A CASINO.

NEW YORK, August 9.—Members of the Saratoga Racing Association are reported to have made up their minds to build one of the largest and finest casinos in the United States and to have it open by next summer. The movement has been brought about by the closing last season of a well known restaurant because the card and roulette rooms attached to it were not permitted by the authorities to run, as they had for several years. All the leading members of the association have become interested in the scheme and plans will, it is said, take definite shape within a few days.

MACHINISTS STRIKE.

OFFICERS NAMED TOWN TRUSTEES DECIDE TO OPEN STREET.

SOUTH BERKELEY REPUBLICANS HOLD AN ENTHUSIASTIC AND INTERESTING MEETING.

BERKELEY. August 9.—The Lorin Republican Club held an enthusiastic meeting last night, when officers for the ensuing year were elected and preparations made for the fall campaign. Owing to the absence of the president, H. D. Irwin was elected temporary chairman.

R. E. Nickel reported in behalf of the nominating committee, stating that the committee had decided not to present a list of nominees for office, believing that it was a better plan to nominate officers in open meeting. He also reported that the committee that had been appointed to work with the Berkeley Republicans Club with regard to the nomination of candidates to the county Republican convention. He stated that the persons suggested by the committee had been approved by the men of the club, and that names were placed on the ticket of candidates to the county Republican convention.

AUDITORS' REPORT.

Auditor M. O. Hanscom reported the following amounts to be in the town treasury:

GO RIGHT AHEAD IMPROVING.

Allston Way, Running Adjacent to the University Grounds, is Not a Thoroughfare.

GREAT AMOUNT OF STREET WORK IS ORDERED BY THE BERKELEY TRUSTEES.

BERKELEY. August 9.—At the regular meeting of the Town Board of Trustees last night, strenuous protest against the opening of Allston way, from Dana street to Telegraph avenue, was presented by Mrs. M. J. Silversfield through her attorney, J. Hewett. In representing the municipality Town Attorney Breton A. Hayne contended that the street had never been regularly opened, while Attorney Hewett declared that the thoroughfare had been dedicated and used since 1872 as a public street.

The project of Mrs. Silversfield was unanimously overruled.

A communication from Major Edward Sherman of Oakland, secretary of the Sloat Monument Association, protesting the incorporation of the Board in the erection of a Sloat Monument at Montevideo, was referred to the finance committee.

A communication was received from F. Berger complaining that a spring of water was flowing in the street, the corner of Telegraph and Albany avenues. It was referred to the superintendent of streets.

CLUBS MAY CONSOLIDATE.

NEW YORK, August 9.—Negotiations are now under way between the directors of the Lotus Club and the New York Club looking to a consolidation of these well known organizations. Both own valuable property on Fifth avenue, which it is proposed to sell and with the proceeds build a new club house further up the avenue.

Members of both clubs say that such a proposal is being considered, but that no definite steps will be taken until the summer is over.

It is said John D. Rockefeller desires the site of the Lotus Club for the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, which occupies a corner at Forty-sixth street.

Sportsmen of both clubs say that such a proposal is being considered, but that no definite steps will be taken until the summer is over.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Bartz, Mr. and Mrs. Catherly, Mr. new office immediately.

BERKELEY. August 9.—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Battin were tendered a delightful surprise party last Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Battin's parents, 2295 Otis street. The young couple had just returned from a honeymoon trip when their many friends made them a most unexpected visit.

The Johnson home had been beautifully decorated for the occasion and a jolly evening was spent in games and music. Delicous refreshments were served, and at a late hour the guests departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Battin much happiness and prosperity.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde B. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Bartz, Mr. and Mrs. Catherly, Mr. new office immediately.

SPORTSMEN WIN.

In regard to the Sportsmen, J. R. Martin, the baseball team, San Leandro, certainly has no cause for complaint, as they have more than upheld the baseball honors of the town. In Sunday's game on the local diamond, with that hard-hitting outfit, the Pacific Mutual Life team of San Francisco, the Sportsmen came out strong and defeated the visitors by a score of 13 to 12. Up to the fourth game the score was 4 to 4 in favor of the visitors, and then the Sportsmen woke up and made the fly. Next Sunday the Sportsmen will play the Old Kicks of Oakland.

TOWN NOTES.

J. R. Martin has been appointed collector for the Pacific Fire and Security Company in this district.

A. J. Williams has sold his interest in the express business of Antrude & Williams to J. W. McCoy of Hayward.

BERKELEY. August 9.—A number of young men, including the members of the Foresters' band of this city, are contemplating giving a vaudeville entertainment at St. Joseph's Hall some time in September. Only local talent will take part and some original and up-to-date specialties will doubtless be given. On Sunday evening a meeting will be held in the City Hall to formulate plans, set a date, etc.

SPORTSMEN WIN.

In regard to the Sportsmen, J. R. Martin, the baseball team, San Leandro, certainly has no cause for complaint, as they have more than upheld the baseball honors of the town. In Sunday's game on the local diamond, with that hard-hitting outfit, the Pacific Mutual Life team of San Francisco, the Sportsmen came out strong and defeated the visitors by a score of 13 to 12. Up to the fourth game the score was 4 to 4 in favor of the visitors, and then the Sportsmen woke up and made the fly. Next Sunday the Sportsmen will play the Old Kicks of Oakland.

WANTS' CHARTER REVISED.

MAYOR OLNEY WANTS AMENDMENTS SUBMITTED TO THE PEOPLE.

Before leaving the office of Mayor of the city of Oakland, Mayor Olney intended to submit a proposition for the approval of the people of this city, in regard to revising the city charter in such a way that the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners will be taken out of politics, and their duties be exercised by the Mayor. This proposition, if accepted by the people, will not in any way benefit the present Mayor, as he has stated that he will not be a candidate for Mayor in another campaign.

The Mayor states that the members of the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners have been complaining that they have been frequently annoyed by men wishing to be appointed as firemen or policemen, and to such an extent that they have not been able to properly fill their positions. Mayor Olney said today: "In my opinion the Police Commissioners should be appointed by the Mayor. They could do their work without fear of favoritism and without being hampered with political interests."

The influences which are brought to bear on the commissioners are sufficient at times to seriously interfere with the performance of their other duties.

There are other weighty reasons why this charter should be changed. The bond election is coming on, and I am confident that the people will vote $200,000 for improvements. The Board of Fire Commissioners is composed of the same members as the police commission, will have charge of spending that large sum of money. To do justice to the people the members of the Board of Works should be encumbered with other duties at their disposal.

"The City Attorney, for instance, is a member of both boards, yet he is also the legal adviser of both boards. This is not right."

"The City Engineer has plenty to do in his own office without going outside. City Engineer Turner said he heartily agreed with Mayor Olney. He declared: "I am tired of being asked for favors by politicians. I want to be let alone and confine myself to the duties of my office."

COMPANY REORGANIZED.

NEW YORK. August 9.—A reorganization of the Morse Dry Dock and Repair Company of Brooklyn, has been effected with a capital of $600,000. The company went into the hands of a receiver in October, 1903. More than 2000 men were deprived of employment at the time. The new company will build ships of all kinds.

A NEW LUMBER COMPANY.

G. W. FISHER OPENS EXTENSIVE YARDS IN THIS CITY.

G. W. Fisher who for the past nine years has been manager of the Puget Sound Lumber and Lumber Company (which company has recently disposed of its Oakland lumber interests) has now opened another lumber yard under the name of the Fisher Lumber Company. This company, like the old one, will carry a large and well selected stock of pine and redwood lumber, etc. Mr. Fisher is well known in this city and county and throughout the State as being connected with the lumber business and his friends speak for him in good char of his old patronage. The Fisher Lumber Co. has just completed a large and very attractive office, corner of Third and Oak streets. The inside finish is in natural K. D. Douglas. Edward G. Hunt, Allen J. Lucas and Mr. Smillie—who hold clerical office positions with Mr. Fisher in the old Puget Sound Lumber Co., for several years, have now accepted same positions with the Fisher Lumber Co. Mr. Berg, yard foreman, is well known by the patrons of the old company.

The main yard and offices are at Third and Oak streets, occupying some three acres, being old tracks and railroad switches running directly through the yard. Lumber can be received and shipped by railroad without extra switch charges. The company also has a branch office up town at 42 Tenth street.

MAY REVOKE CHARTERS.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. August 9.—The charters of several well known medical colleges of Pennsylvania may be revoked by the State Board of Medical Examiners on the ground that the institutions are graduating students who are not competent to be intrusted with the lives of patients, according to a statement made by the president of the board. The medical examiners are now in session here and the statement was made by an examination of the papers recently sent in by applicants for State licenses to practice medicine in Pennsylvania.

TOBACCO CROP DAMAGED.
WESTFIELD, Mass., August 9.—Damage to the tobacco crop to the amount of over $100,000 has been caused in this vicinity by a hailstorm which lasted about fifteen minutes. The crop was one of the finest grow here in some time.

HAVE GONE TO BOSTON.

Charles H. Palmerster, C. A. Fuller, T. P. Knight, F. M. Farwell, C. H. Smith, J. E. Dyer and Charles Reseher of this city left this morning for Boston, where they will attend the G. A. R. encampment. They will return after the business of the grand banquet will be tendered, at which nothing but Contra Costa products will be served.

DELEGATES WILL HOLD THEIR CONVENTION AT CROCKETT.

MOVES INTO AN UNOCCUPIED HOUSE WITH HIS WIFE AND "SQUATS"

The committee appointed to arrange for the reception to be given to the delegates of the Grand Council of the Young Men's Institute, which will be held at Crockett the latter part of August, are extending every effort in order to make the occasion a memorable one in the memory of the delegates who will attend. R. P. Richet, president of the California and Hawaiian Sugar Company has consented to allow the delegates to make use of the accommodations at the Hotel Crockett. The hotel is now under the management of John McMahan.

Harry Raap, who is in charge of the St. Louis exhibition of Contra Costa, has been instructed by the Board of Supervisors of that county, to give an exhibition of Contra Costa products during the stay of the delegates. This will undoubtedly be very interesting to many of the delegates, and will probably do considerable good for that county.

An open air concert will be rendered during the stay of the delegates. One of the most important matters of business will be the adoption of a new ritual and the future employment of a permanent organizer.

The new propositions will be the result of a year's work of the program group, consisting of Dr. Weller, who has been making a study of the feasibility of adopting these new measures.

It is thought that an animated discussion will arise when the matters are brought before the delegates.

The program will consist of the business to be transacted, has been arranged as follows: Monday morning, August 22, mass at 9:30, after which the grand march will be at Odd Fellows' Hall; Monday evening at Alcatraz Hall, concert and entertainment; Tuesday at 12 noon, boat and river excursions, when the mouths of the great rivers will be visited; Wednesday evening there will be a grand ball, and Thursday evening, after the business of the grand council is finished, an elaborate banquet will be tendered, at which nothing but Contra Costa products will be served.

"But you have no right here," replied the constable.

"I know it," said the man, "but that is none of your business. I want to see you put me out."

The constable came back and now Chief of Police Hodgkins has been appealed to and has promised to send out a man to see what can be done. According to the opinion of experts there is no way in which the man can be legally ejected without bringing a suit in the Superior Court, which may take a couple of months to bring to a trial, as the constable is congested with care.

But will overact on account of the court vacation.

HE SHOWS POLICE MEETING. A NEW TRICK.

DELEGATES WILL HOLD THEIR CONVENTION AT CROCKETT.

MOVES INTO AN UNOCCUPIED HOUSE WITH HIS WIFE AND "SQUATS"

There are all sorts and varieties of "heats" known to the anti-ordines, but the latest has a trick all of its own and so far seems to be able to laugh at laws and the police. A man who refuses to give his name, with his wife, who has moved into a house at 1430 San Pablo avenue, without right or title. He acknowledges that he has no right there, but tells me that goes to dispute possession with him to put him out. The house belongs to the Realty Syndicate and the master has been turned over to the Dean Law and Collection Agency, but, seemingly there is little that they can do.

No one knows when the couple first moved into the premises and "squatting." The house was for rent and a tenant was sent out about two weeks ago to look at the place and found it occupied. He reported that he was satisfied with the place if it would be cleaned up by the occupants. This was really purchased, as no one that had any authority had rented the place to the man, regardless of knowledge of the name. It may be several months yet before the unwelcome visitor can be dislodged, and in the meantime the prospective tenant is looking for another house and the stranger is living rent free.

There seemingly is no hold the law can get on him without going into the courts and prosecuting a civil action at an expense of at least $50. The man has not paid the previous rent in the amount of $100, and he could be ejected. As a bluff a constable was sent out yesterday. He found the man sitting on the porch and inside were a few pieces of furniture. In the yard was a horse and wagon, and seemingly the couple were very much at home.

The constable approached and noticed the man who he was and that he was sent out to take him, he said the young man replied the occupant of the house was "It is your business to serve papers, isn't it? If you have any I'll take them, and you go along at your business."

"But you have no right here," replied the constable.

"I know it," said the man, "but that is none of your business. I want to see you put me out."

CLEVER PLAY AT LIBERTY THEATER.

There was another big house at Ye Liberty last night to witness the "Hills of California" a rural comedy in four acts, by Judson C. Brusie. To say the play is a success is a bold way of putting it, and the company presenting the play were well cast and gave an unusually finished performance. The rough edges that are so often noticed on the first nights, were not visible in the production of the "Hills of California" last evening.

Such outrages to ensnare the liberty of the common and respectable American citizen, make the blood boil and surge. Many of us had forefathers that in 1776 shuddered the old flint lock, left their comfortable homes for the open camp, suffered from cold, hunger, and exposure, wounds, disease, and even death to preserve the sacred heritage of liberty, and that same old spirit of fearless blood, today calls for the sons to maintain fast, and oppose and crush the ugly spirit of tyranny, and oppression so plainly shown by these labor unions.

There are things in this world, dearer than money or business.

We expend about a million dollars a year with newspapers, most of which go to printers and other workmen. Probably two millions a year more are spread among our work people, farmers, and others.

Our factories cover many acres of ground, and the business furnishes food and clothing for nearly 3,000 human beings.

This act of the Unions is open for the purpose of ruining the business and therefore taking the livelihood from these 3,000 people whom God has created, and naturally intends shall be fed and clothed.

Our work people are paid high wages.

Those who have been with us one year, receive 5 percent above regular wages, and the two years and other veterans receive 10 percent above the highest regular wages. They are of course, about as thrifty, sober, and prosperous as any other people.
